DELANIE "LANER" SLAUGHTER

- III. Delanie "Laner" Slaughter d. before 8-29-1821 m. 1-7-1787 (Granville Co., NC) John Jacob Slaughter¹⁴⁶
b. 5-20-1757 (Germantown, Germantown Twp., PA) d. after 1840¹⁴⁷ (Sullivan Co., TN), son of Martin Schlotterer¹⁴⁸ and Anna Barbara Schad.¹⁴⁹
- A. Rebecca Slaughter b. 1788 (Granville Co., NC) m.c. 1806 (Washington Co., TN) Alexander Smith
b.c. 1783 (Washington Co., TN) d.c. 1838 (KY)

¹⁴⁶John Jacob Slaughter served in the Revolutionary War in the First Rifle Regiment of Pennsylvania under Captain Farmer. He was in the attack on Quebec on 12-31-1775 and the Battle of Long Island on 8-27-1776. He enlisted in October 1775 on Chestnut Hill, near German Town, PA. This information came from two affidavits Jacob submitted to obtain a government pension based on his military service. One of these affidavits was dated 8-14-1820, "Schedule of income to qualify for pension," and stated that Jacob had a wife and 11 children. The Tennessee Pension Roll of 1835 shows that he received that pension. It states that he received an annual allowance of $96.00, that the pension started 1-5-1821, and that he had received $1,491.73 as of 1835. It said that he was 78 years old, was a private in the North Carolina Continental Line, and lived in Sullivan Co., TN. This confirms his military service and his birth year of 1757.

¹⁴⁷John Jacob Slaughter was shown in the 1840 Census for Sullivan Co., TN.

¹⁴⁸"... Martin Slotterer, a tailor who had emigrated from Germany in 1749. His wife Brigitta Steiger, whom he had married in the fall of 1750, had died on giving birth to twins, and he had married a second wife, Anna Barbara Schad, in February 1752." Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine, Vol. 20, No. 2, 1956, Page 98.

Martin Schlotterer m. 1st 9-19-1750 (Philadelphia Co., PA) Brigitte Steiger b.c. 1731 d. 1751. The twins were Johannes Schlotterer and Agnes Barbara Schlotterer b. 8-1-1751 (Philadelphia Co., PA) and christened 8-11-1751.

¹⁵⁶Catherine Slaughter was not a party to the 1826 deed which disposed of Delanie Slaughter's share of Jacob Schlotterer's estate. She was living in Smith Co., TN by then, and the rest of the family may have lost contact with her.

¹⁵⁷Gideon Gifford enlisted at Fayetteville, TN on 10-1-1814 in Capt. Anthony H. Metcalf's Co. during the War of 1812 and was honorably discharged at Nashville, TN in April or May of 1815. Gideon Gifford most likely had a wife before Catherine, because of the birth dates of some older children. These children were: Joseph F. Gifford b.c. 1795, Sarah "Sally" Gifford b.c. 1800, Hannah Gifford b.c. 1802, George Gifford b.c. 1806 and Mary "Polly" Gifford b.c. 1810.

¹⁵⁸Andrew J. Burns died in the Civil War. He was in Company I, 9th Kentucky Infantry in the Union Army.

¹⁵⁹Shadrack Brooks Hargis was in Company K, 9th Kentucky Infantry and in Company B, 23rd Kentucky Infantry during the Civil War.

¹⁶¹The 1930 Census for Macon Co., TN shows what appears to be "Wuantta K. Hargis." The index on www.ancestry.com gives this spelling. I checked the image, and I cannot decipher anything else it could be except a very poorly spelled "Juanita." The middle initial has been written over in another handwriting, but appears to be "K." Until the 1940 census becomes public in 2011 and I find a different spelling, I will leave the name as is.

¹⁶²"Cager" is usually a nickname for "Micajah," but he signed as "Cager" on his World War I draft registration card in 1918. His hair was dark and his eyes were blue. He was listed in the 1880 Census for Macon Co., TN as "C. B." and in all subsequent years as "Cager."

¹⁷⁹William Thomas Hicks never married, but family members who lived in the area have stated that he fathered children by a black childhood neighbor, Lucy Thorp b. 5-1894 (Granville Co., NC) d. 1925-30 (Granville Co., NC), daughter of Micajah "Cager" Thorp and Lucy C. ----. This seems to be confirmed by census records. I am including Lucy Thorp's descendants.

¹⁸⁰Before he died, Calvin Roosevelt Thorpe was living at 8176 Charlie Stovall Road, Oxford, Granville Co., NC, along with Audelia Thorpe, Barbara J. Thorpe (b. 11-17-1946), George Thorpe (b. 3-1-1921), Johnny L. Thorpe (b. 1945), L. Thorpe, and Lillie H. Thorpe (b. 1956).

¹⁸²Walter Thorpe is possibly the Walter Thorpe who died 3-31-1992 in Henderson, Vance Co., NC.

¹⁸³William Thorpe probably died young since he is not in the 1930 Census.

¹⁸⁴Samuel H. Thorpe enlisted in the Army at Ft. Bragg, NC on 11-7-1942 for World War II. He may be the Sam H. Thorpe b. 2-27-1921 (NC) who died 1-6-1989 in Boston, MA (SSN: 242-42-9514).

 - i. Dorothy Cross m. Carson Echol Williams b.c. 1915, son of Robert B. Williams and Minnie Estelle Musick ¹⁸⁵Elizabeth Slaughter and her brothers and sisters, John, Catharine, William, Barbary, and Elkanah were shown living together in the 1870 Census for Sullivan Co., TN. Their mother, Nancy, died before 1860, perhaps when the youngest son, Elkanah, was born.

¹⁸⁶Samuel D. Slaughter is probably Lilly B. Slaughter's father, since he had no brothers. In the 1900 Census of Sullivan Co., TN, Jacob Slaughter is listed as the head of household. Samuel D. is listed as his son, and Lilly B. is listed as his granddaughter. Jacob is listed as widowed, and Samuel D. is listed as single, not widowed. Lilly's mother probably died at or soon after Lilly's birth.

¹⁸⁷Barbary Slaughter was listed in the 1850 Census of Sullivan Co., TN. Her first name was given as "Barbara" in later census records.

¹⁸⁸Worley Slaughter farmed with his father in Blountville, Sullivan Co., TN according to his World War I Draft Registration Card. His birth date was 8-17-1899. A family tree on www.ancestry.com says that he was born 7-1-1899, but I am using the documented date of 8-17-1899.

¹⁸⁹Basil Slaughter's birth and death dates came from the NC Death Index (online), which also stated that he had been residing at Mountain City, Beaufort Co., TN.

¹⁹⁰The death certificate of Martin Slaughter's son, Stephen Martin Slaughter, says that Martin was born in TN.

¹⁹¹Martin died of asthma (or had asthma when he died) in December 1869, according to "Schedule 2.—Persons who Died during the Year ending 1st June, 1870, in Walnut Grove Twp., Co. of Granville, State of North Carolina, enumerated by me, M. B. Jones, Ass't Marshal."

¹⁹²Martha died of consumption (tuberculosis) in March 1870, according to "Schedule 2.—Persons who Died during the Year ending 1st June, 1870, in Walnut Grove Twp., Co. of Granville, State of North Carolina, enumerated by me, M. B. Jones, Ass't Marshal."

¹⁹³William Samuel Ragan's World War I Draft Registration (9-12-1918) says he was a farmer at Berea, Granville Co., NC and had a note reading "one eye out."

¹⁹⁴Samuel Talmadge "Sam" Ragan was named North Carolina's poet laureate for life in 1982 by Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr.

¹⁹⁵The infant son's stone gives the dates and says "son of W.S. and E.C. Ragan." The burial is with the grave of Thomas D. Slaughter (1830-1920) in a clump of trees beside Old Roxboro Road, about 1/10 mile west of Sunset Road near Berea, Granville Co., NC (<<http://cemeterycensus.com/nc/gran/cem234.htm>>, 5-13-2008).

¹⁹⁶Louis Fleming Hicks' World War I Draft Registration (6-5-1917) says that he was employed by the City of Raleigh as a fireman. It says he was single and had blue eyes and black hair.

²⁰⁰Dr. Frank Gill Slaughter was a famous novelist (see his biography in the Appendix).

²⁰¹Solomon Henry Slaughter signed his name as such on his World War I Draft Registration Card. It listed his nearest relative as his mother, Mary P. Slaughter. He had gray eyes, light hair, medium height, and medium build. He was shown as still unmarried in the 1930 Census of Granville Co., NC. He was living with brothers, William and George, and sister, Mary E. Fuller. His occupation was listed as house carpenter.

²⁰²In a genealogy forum message posted by Debbie Nelms Hitchcock on 5-10-1999, she stated that Isaac Slaughter and wife, Louisa, moved from NC to Sullivan Co., TN. They had a daughter, Martha L. Slaughter, who was born about 1827 in Sullivan Co., TN and died about 1883. Martha married James Wesley Nelms in 1851.

²⁰³William Slaughter was not of age in 1826. David Baughman (Buchanan) signed, as William's guardian, a deed on 12-30-1826. The deed is quoted in full in a previous footnote.
